

Arrowhead Chapter
CALENDAR OF EVENTS
January and February 2010

Please note that Wild Ones programs start at 7PM at Hartley Nature Center.
Meetings are preceded by a Chapter meeting from 6:15-6:45PM.

Wed
Jan 27th

Basics of Landscaping with Native Plants: Get in Harmony with Nature!

Presenter: Carol Andrews, national president of Wild Ones: Native Plants, Natural Landscapes.

Where can I buy native plants? How do I know what to buy and when and how to plant it? Can I transplant them from natural areas? Why are so many people interested in native plants? Get answers to these and any other questions you may have as Carol shares her experience and knowledge on the basics of starting and maintaining a native landscape. Feel free to bring photos of your yard if you have specific questions.

Wed
Feb 24th

Gardening for Year-Round Interest – What looks Great in Winter?

Presenters: A panel of local experts and special guests from the Twin Cities Association for Professional Landscape Designers

How many months are deciduous trees in the Northland naked? Over half the year! Natural beauty abounds throughout the year; how does Mother Nature do it? Join us for a fun discussion as we discern her tricks that you can use at home!

Sat
Feb 27th
8AM-4:45PM

Wild Ones Design With Nature 2010 Conference: creating healthy communities above and below ground

This conference, hosted by the Twin Cities and St. Croix Oak Savanna chapters of Wild Ones, along with the Minnesota Chapter of the American Society of Landscape Architects (MASLA), and Blue Thumb-Planting for Clean Water, presents noted speakers Douglas Tallamy, Ed Plaster, Welby Smith, and Evelyn Hadden. The conference will cover the ecological roles of plants in the landscape, the linkages between native plants, insects and wildlife, and strategies for soil restoration and diversified landscape approaches. Exhibitors from native plant nurseries, natural landscape designers, and environmental organizations will be present. Conference location is the Radisson Hotel Roseville. Registrations are due by February 22, either by mail or online at www.eventbrite.com. Admission is $40 for Wild Ones members, $45 for non-members, and $20 for full time students. For more information, see: <http://for-wild.org/chapters/twincities/conference.html>