

News from MSHS

MINNESOTA STATE
HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

From the Northern Gardener website

You can travel with C. Coleston Burrell and the Minnesota State Horticultural Society to the Portland, Oregon area August 19 through 24 and visit world-class coastal gardens, emerging sustainable parks, and Mt. Hood and cruise on the Columbia River. For information and brochure, contact Macy's Travel, 800-533-0324 or 612 375-3639.

If you haven't checked out the Editors' Blog on the MSHS website, give it a look. Start at www.northerngardener.org and click on the Northern Gardener Editor's Blog in the column on the left. Mary Schier has placed many entries there, from a book review to tips on plant trends, from a great featured garden (the U. S. Botanical Garden) to her wish list of garden seminars and events to attend this spring.

This is a great time to become a member of the MSHS, because in a few weeks the list of participating nurseries and garden centers who will give discounts to MSHS members will come out. As a new member, you'll also get a $25 credit at White Flower Farm, which you can use toward your first catalog purchase. And of course you'll receive Northern Gardener Magazine...all this for $35 per year if

2010 "SEEDS" Donations

The cost of printing and mailing "SEEDS" in 2009 totaled $1581. Donations and subscriptions totaling $1829 were received in 2009. Thank you "SEEDS" readers! So far in 2010 we have received $931. Since January, the following have donated to "SEEDS"

Biwabik Home & Garden Club
Chisholm Hibbing Garden Club
Cook Garden Club
Eveleth-Fayal Garden Club
Gitchee Gumees Garden Club
Grand Rapids Garden Club
Hilltop Flower Club
Hortus Club of Duluth

Lakeaire Garden Club
Littlefork Garden Club
Normanna Garden Club
North Country Garden Club of Marcel
Norton Park Garden Club
Silver Bay Garden Club
7 advertisers
3 individual subscriptions
5 gifts from Clubs and Subscribers

Your financial support is sincerely appreciated. If you or your organization would like to contribute to "SEEDS" please mail your donation to: Dave Wildung, 712 SW 7th Ave., Grand Rapids, MN 55744 Thank You!

'SEEDS'

MSHS - 8th District Horticultural Society
813 NE 5th Avenue
Chisholm, MN 55719

